Today I stepped down as Director of Finance and Administration of the Royal Academy of Dance.

During the twenty seven years in post, I was fortunate to have served three Presidents, three Chairman of the Board of Trustees and three Chief Executives who have given me great support during my tenure and without whom I wouldn't have been able to carry out my role. I have also been ably supported by my fellow Directors.

I also had the opportunity to meet many of you as trustees, members, teachers, examiners, tutors, employees, candidates, attendees or volunteers either on my travel throughout the Academy's extended reach or here at Battersea Square.

The Academy has enriched my life and I would like to thank all of you for being part of it. I am looking forward to retirement, but I will continue to be in touch with the Academy as a Friend, and I hope that I will still have the opportunity to meet you from time to time.

With my best regards

Nicholas Mann
